Late bight Mr Ben Allah gave in admirably species ul performance in the Placetre Royal, City Hall, to a large and largely delighted audience. His entertainment consists of sleight-of-hand performances, and an exhibition of ventriloquial skill. In the one art as in the other be manuscreet. Wonderful clayerness, and if we judge by the plaudits, which were loud and long, he gave great satisfaction to his numerous patrons. Some of his tricks were remarkably elever and as well done. Co.'s unseen planeforte player, who also relieved the walts with music and played several lively selections during the conjugate feats. At the close of the sourcetainment, a large number of prizes were given away, including a sewing machine, a silver watch, and several other valuable presents. These were distributed in what seemed a fair and bong fide manner, and several ladies and gentlemen well known amongst the audisnoe and in their various stalks of life were amongst the holders of the fortunate numbers. There are other two performances announced, when a change of programme will be given. If the same success attends these as has attended his opening night, Ben Allah will no doubt lengthen his stay in Hongkong. The house last night was the largest there has been for any entertainment of the kind here for a considerable length of those and a continued to

On it becoming known that the Messageries Maritimes steamer Ass people the budy of an European about a mile entside Green Island on Sunday morning last, it was supposed in many places that it might be that of the late Mr Nelson Spratt. The steamer was proceeding at a quick sate and there was no opportunity winterer of recovering or identifying the body nor of so taking note of the corpse, in detail as to lend to identification, but on a careful consideration of the currents and all the surrounding circumstances it can scatcely be expected that the body pursed was that of his Sprats. He fell overboard when the Posses was well up the Centon River, and the probence may then be posted in the containing the whole of the Proceedings at ability is that the body would be carried moveable box on board the Packet. the Police Court, full report of the trial in out to sea by the current of the river and would never probably come within so short a distance of Green Island as one talle

> THERE is, little of general interest by the American Mail; whose Fan Francisco dates are only the same as we have from London by another opportunity. The elections of delegates were on, and were causing much excitement. The prophenies were all in favour of Grant, but those have been belled, as we know by the talagraphic advices. San Francisco itself was pretty lively with the Kaltook family, the trial of L. M. Kallock for murder passing through its proliminary stages, the father, I. S. Kallooh, being impossible for corruption in his office of Mayor, and a libel case arising out of a suggestion that he was not too good & man to have bribed one of the windward to the recent shooting of de Young to awar fairely. The investigation this the extraordinary case of the Cadet Whittaker, whose cars were alls, as it was alleged, by some of his fellow Cadets, has been concluded. The latest linews was that the evidence went for to race snatching the proposition that Whitlaker was his own matieter, or that he we withoutless party to the act, and the report of the Commilitor would, it was mid be to that effect; THE RESERVOIR STREET, THE PROPERTY OF THE PROP brought the gentlemen of the house to their From. The appearance of the presence of the lightering in the room is described as resembling a ball of fire careering madly cound the nursery. The electric fluid would appear to have made its escape by creating a new breach in the ceiling within a few inches of the opening by which it made its entrance. The most strange feature in this strange affair was that nothing in any of the rooms was broken or disturbed, - a fact all the more remarkable, considering that they are filled with fancy ornaments and articles de certa which seem as if the proverbial "angel" breath would ut ariy demolish them. It is simply a miracle that the innocents ecconced in the four or five cote that were in this room were not instantaneously, struck down or so scarred and disfigured so to make their life a burden to them. The only other possibility was almost as bad' that, that the lightning might have set fire to the house and endangered the lives of weery one present in Mr Romano's residence at the time. The portions (woodwork) of the ceiling of the room where the lightning entered and where it made its escape were both scorohed. Every one of the beds was hung with mosquite curtains which would have gone up in a blaze in a second had the fire caught hold of them. That the event resulted so happily as it has done is fortunate in the extreme, and Mr and Mrs Bomano have been waited upon to-day and sincerely congratulated by a large body of their friends on the Providence and good fortune which has preserved them and their household amidst so grave and great peril. The cases of flag staffs being struck by lightning, the second of which we now record, have hitherto been few and far between in this Colony. We believe there has been nothing of the kind here for some nine or ten years. This is noteworthy in view of the fact that every flag-staff at the smallest outlay might be effectually protected by a lightning rod. - will be wet and

Some light is thrown upon the departure of Colonel Gordon for China, by the following telegram :-

This hope was unhappily not realised, and Mr Black returned to Yokohame, where it is painful to know that the cares of the last year have, in all probability, tended to shorten a life that under other circumstances might have been usefully prolonged.

The children and the amake coresmed and | REGIRDING the party given by the Chinese Ambasador, which is referred to in the cuttings we give from the L. & O. Express, we have the following in a San Francisco contemprorary:-

> Among the non-Royal entertainments of the week, the most remarkabe is the party given last night by the Chinese Ambassador, the first since his appointment. Chinese stiquette was disregarded, and the Ambassadress received the company with her husband, men and women alike being presented to the hostess. There was an extraordinary throng of people, including nearly all the diplomatic corps, Gladstone, and many representatives of the higher and middle ranks. There were probably a thousand people altogether. Gladstone was surrounded by admirers the whole evening, and was in great spirits. The last Ambassadress gave one reception but this is the first time a Chinese lady of this rank received gentlemen on the same terms as ladies. The younger children were also present. The eldest daughter. who is marriageable but unmarried, beld a private reception on the upper fixor, to which ladies alone were admitted. ..

The following instructive case we find

The Chinaman appealed, tions in the amendment that all "persons on the ground that the reporter's notes were living in this country were there equally hearsay, and should have been verified at the trial for perjury by the interpreter, or some other witness who understood Chinese, who could then have been subjected to cross examination. The Supreme Court sustained this objection, and reversed the judgment of conviction.

In the current number of the Quarterly Review there is no able and interesting article on "The Chinese in Central Asia," in which the writer says :-

THE Indian Press and public have grave reason to be dissatisfied with Reuter's telegram service as at present conducted. The Statesman, on a reference to its files, finds that, in March 1876, it published 590 lines from Reuter against 470 in March 1880. In April 1876, 510 against 414, and in May 1876, 940 against 183. There figures, too, are the more quantisfactory because the state of affairs in England lately has been such as to call for a more hours duration. The Gosette writes of than usually full supply of telegraphic intelligence. At the same time the rate of subscription has been steadily raised, and a further increase hinted at. The Captain of the vessel, the Yunan, was the second volume of his book entitled fact is, says the Staleman, that Reuter has come to think that the Indian Press cannot do without him, but he is playing & losing game. THE Saturday Review writes as follows, as to the low estimation in which English decorations are now held :--

With our usual tendency to violent reaction, we are making them so common that they are rapidly becoming worthless. Take a single case, that of the C.B. was when this decoration was only conferred upon officers for some signal, exceptional, or meritorious service ; and so long as this rule was observed it was in every sense a distinction as well as a decoration. Now it has become a sort of rule to confer it upon every officer who commands a regiment during a campaign, no matter how brief or bloodless its share may have been and for such an officer not to receive it is tantamount to a mark of official displeasure. H. M.'s ship Ison Duke arrived at the Yo clearly proved. Under these circumstances, tame way, every official who fills a post of the smallest responsibility in any of our colonies without committing any sorious blunders during his term of office, expects, and feels himself servieved if he does not been a tendency to bestow this decoration on superior officers who serve in our coloni. dross China Review, Hongkong .- Northern Christian Advocate (U.S.) Trubner's Oriental Record contains the following notice of the China Review :- "This visitors at moderate rates, 110, Queen's is the title of a publication, the first number | Road Central.-J. Cook, Proprietor. of which has lately reached us from Hongkong, where it has been set on foot as in some respects a continuation of Notes and Queries on China and Japan, the extinction of which useful serial a year or two ago has been much regretted in Europe as well an in China. Thepresent publication, judging GWALIOR, Captain BABOT, will leave this by the number now before us, is intended to occupy a position, as regards China and the neighbouring countries, somewhat similar to that which has been filled in India by the Calcutta Review. The great degree of atje28 tention that has been bestowed of late years upon the investigation of Chinese literature, antiquities, and social developments, to say nothing of linguistic studies, has led to the accumulation of important stores of information, rendering some such channel of publicity as is now provided extremely desirable; and contributions of much interest may fairly be looked for from the members: of the foreign consular services, the Chinese EWEN, FRICKEL & Co. Customs' corps, and the missionary body, among whom a high degree of Chinese scholarship is now assiduously cultivated, and who are severally represented in the first number of the Review by papers highly creditable to their respective authors. In a paper on Dr. Legge's She King, by the lars. Optical Instruments, Mordan' Rev. E. J.
